

KLOVE serves me in the community by broadcasting awesome and uplifting music all day. It keeps me in tune with what is really important. If KLOVE is replaced or removed by a LPFM they may not be able to broadcast thus causing hundreds of thousands of people to not have the great family oriented content. In an age when "crap" is broadcasted everywhere this is a bright spot. Thank you for not allowing LPFM's to have preference.